MammoJam Music Festival Food and Gift Card Donations

Last year several local businesses and organizations worked with the MammoJam Music Festival to contribute over $12,000 to support local breast cancer awareness, prevention, and treatment programs for uninsured and low income women. The 16th Annual MammoJam Music Festival will be held on Saturday, March 2nd, 2019 at Baltimore's famous 8x10 in Federal Hill. In addition to a day filled with music by the Ursula Ricks Project, Roses n Rust, and 33 West, this memorable evening will also feature food from some of Baltimore's top restaurants.

MammoJam works closely with organizations like Healthcare for the Homeless and the Hoffberger Breast Center at Mercy Medical Center to provide medical services to Baltimore's most vulnerable women. We are asking local restaurants to donate food for our guests to enjoy during the festival or gift cards that they can enjoy in your establishment after it over. Participating restaurants will have their name included on a custom made placard prepared for their donated entrée or appetizer and in our festival brochure distributed to everyone who attends the event.

MammoJam Music Festival, Inc. is recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as tax exempt 501(c)(3) organization and contributions are tax deductible under section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code

Thank you for considering participation in the 14th Annual MammoJam Music Festival. If you have any further questions or wish to contribute please contact us at lori.carrino@gmail.com or brianagregory1@gmail.com.
